CPYRGHT

Appointed

Col. Edwin H. Ferris, above, has been named professor of St. John's College High School. He succeeds Col. Arthur C. Purvis, who retired after 10 years in the post. Col. Ferris is a graduate of Gonzaga High School and of West Point Military Academy. He had been with the Central Intelligence Agency since his retirement from the Army in 1949. St. John's has about 1200 cadets.
